OVERVIEW

The new curriculum changes to the ELPP was driven by demands from current and past ELPP students and their supervisors to match the course content to the current needs of students pursuing academic programmes (Diploma, Executive Diploma, Bachelor's Degree, Master and PhD) at Universiti Malaya. Thus, the new ELPP focusses on the skills of speaking and writing for academic purposes and stresses on grammar and vocabulary to reinforce speaking and writing skills.

COURSE COMPONENTS

These include all four language skills, as below:

- Speaking
- Writing
- Reading
- Listening

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The main objective is to enhance proficiency in the English language so that students can communicate more effectively in this language for the fulfillment of their various needs, specifically:

- For social interaction with people who use the English language
- To pursue academic activities conducted in the English language
- To be better prepared for taking English language examination (IELTS)* that form part of international study prerequisites

*UMCCed will facilitate student's to sit for the IELTS exam at the end of the advanced level.
